AUTOCARETTES IN WASHINGTON

They Slip Along the Asphalt Pavement In Fine Shape.

THE CAPITOLS' CAR SERVICE.

Eplendid Underground Trolley System That Works Like a Charm-Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of the Sultan,

(Special Pisnatch to The Times.) WASHINGTON, D. C., September 10 .-The Capital city has again taken an advanced step in the matter of superior street railway service, We have now "autocarettes" running to various parts of the city not conveniently reached by the regular electric lines and connecting with all the leading roads. These carettes look all the leading roads. These carettes look like a small car and run on rubber-tired wheels, with a storage battery for driving power. They resemble a regular street-car in all details, and are manned by a motorneer and conductor. The company sells six tickets for twenty-five cents, and these tickets are good for any of the regular lines. In addition it has a transfer arrangement with the Pennsylvania Averagrangement with the Pennsylvania Average. nerangement with the Pennsylvania Avenue lines, and passengers are transferred to and from one to the other. The careties to and from one to the other. The careties cover twelve miles an hour under full headway, and are likely to prove a success in running over the smooth asphalt pavements of Washington, I hardly think they would prove sansfactory in a city of cobble-stones and poorly-paved streets.

MARKS ON EPOCH.

MARKS ON EPOCH.

This is one of the advantages of a good system of street paving, which local muniripalities might study with profit in the capital of the nation. The autocarette marks another epoch in the remarkable revolution of Washington's street car service inaugurated under the congressional act prohibiting horse-cars and trolley lines. It was hard on the companies at first, which had grown poor sticking to horse long after every other progressive city had abandoned the four-footed style of propul-sion. Every imaginable scheme was resort-ed to in an effort to get around the law Any number of experiments were made to try to run cars. Some were run on power by storage batterles, some on wind-ac-tually. Well, call it condensed air, But all enerts proved feilures.

Congress, however, was inexorable

Congress, however, was inexorable. Horses had to go, and overhead trallies were inhibited. Two lines built cable systems. One tried the underground electric-wires, stem ald in a conduit, reversing the principle of the overhead wire. ing the principle of the overhead wire. Finally the Metropolitan line, running on F Streat, from Georgetown to the Capitol, introduced the Buda-Pesth system, which consists of a plow attached to the car running in a cable slot between two feedrals charged with electric power. This at once proved so thoroughly satisfactory, causing the car's to run without noise and without joiling ocasioned by cable and overhead-troiley-system; that the road it pled and quadrupled its faitonage, and its stock went up from something like 50 to somewhere near 200.

ALL UNDERGROUND.

In the course of time—not a long time,

In the course of time-not a long time, either—the great power-house of the Pennsylvania-Avenue cable line falling a victim of the flames, that company closed a contract with a Kansas tity contractor, who converted the line into an understant of the contract with a Metropolitan At who converted the line into an under-ground electric, like the Metropolitan. At the present time not a car line system is conducted by any other method in Wash-ington, and New York and other cities have been copying it re iglously as by far the best type of street-car locomotion in America. The impetus given to traffic through this advaged form of travel, con-America. The impetus given to the through this advanced form of travel, considering its speed, comfort and elegance, has caused paying lines to be projected for ten are liteen miles to the smaller towns in Maryland and Virginia, which formerly were connected with this city by river and ratiway only, and a line is nearly completed between New Mington and Balti. completed between Washington and Balti completed between wasangton and Battlemore. Travel has been chormously stimulated by the action of Congress fixing the rate of travel in the District and compelling companies to sell six tickets for 25 cents, good on all lines, and inaugupening companies to sen six thexes for 25 cents, good on all lines, and inaugurating a general transfer 3ystem from one line to another. For less than 5 cents a passenger can travel from one end of the District of Columbia to the other extreme, and all the companies are making money. The autocarette system, expresses the general trend toward the perfection of streetcer travel, which has become an absorbing policy with people of Washington, so that no part of the city shall be without cheap and comfortable street-car service.

THE SULTANS TANIVERSARY.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the crowing of the Sultan of Turkey, Abdul Hamld H., was celebrated Saturday night by the Turkish Muister, All Farrouh Bey, at his home, in Ceveland Park.

A number of guests from out of town were present, and a few Washingtonians.

A solemn service of thanks for the preservation of the monarch's life was held according to the Moslem rite, in which a number of Turks from New York participated. The house was decorated with Turkish days and emblems and American flags. Divisor was served on the cool figs. Dinner was served on the cool veranda of the house, and the health of the Sultan and President McKinley was drunk. The porch was brilliantly illuminated and the fete was very much enjoyed by all of the guests.

Tournament on a Large Scale. (Special Diematch to The Times)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., September 11.-The popular old-time tournaments are coming back into favor again. Successful coming back into fayor again. Successful coniesis between knights of the spear have taken place this summer at various points in the counties of this section, and the rivalry for the honor of crowning the queens and maids of honor has been as keen as in the chivalrous days of the past. The charge to the knights and the coronation address has in nearly every case been delivered by young crators, fresh from college, who fairly reveled in rhetorical flights and were applanded to the echo by the delighted auditors. There is talk now of providing for a tournament on a big scale, to take place on the fair grounds here during the fair of the Rappahannock Valley Association, to be held September 26th, 26th and Zith, to be followed by a grand coronation ball at night. The movement is meeting with popular favor, and will no doubt culminate in a fine success. It is expected that knights from a distance of sixty miles will participate.

FIELD DAY AT LEESBURG.

Machen and Montague Make Fine Speeches-Loudeun in Good Shape. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

LEESBURG, VA., Sept. 10.-To-day was a field day for the Democracy of old Loudoun. Mr. Lewis Machen, the e-cetor for this district, and Mr. A. J. Montague, the Attorney General, had been adver-tised to speak, and a good crowd from the control of the con every section of the county was here to

The speaking was in the court-house, and Mr. Machen led off in a speech of forty-five minutes that was frequently ap plauded. The subject of his discourse was the baneful influence of the trusts.

Mr. Montague followed in a speech of an hour and a half, and his subject was imperialism. He treated it in a very masterful and interesting way, so plainly in fact, to use his expression, that "even a way-faring man, though a Republican," could understand it.

Could understand it.

This was Mr. Montague's first visit to Loudoun. The people were very much pleased with him, and a good many promsed him their support in his gubernatorial aspirations.

The meeting was presided over and the speakers introduced by Mr. D. Bruin, the county chairman.

The Democracy of Loudoun is in good shape and will give Bryan, Stevenson and Rixey a good majority in November next.

SHNATOR MARTIN SPEAKS.

Arraigns the Republicans for Their Imperialistic Policy. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

BUCKINGHAM, COURTHOUSE, VA. Sept. 11.-The voters of Buckingham county were addressed in a ringing speech by Senator Thomas S. Martin on yester-day, County Court day. The usual court-day crowd was in attendance, and the Senator was enthusiastically received. Senator was entitudistated by received Senator Martin spoke for about one hour and fifteen minutes. His speech was an unanswerable argument against imperialism and trusts. The Senator showed most conclusively that this Government, under the McKinley administration, is gradually abandoning the policy that has made this country great and glorious, and is drifting into an imperialistic policy which will ultimately destroy free govern-ment and Republican institutions. The Senator closed with beautiful tributes to W. J. Bryan and H. D. Flood amidst a perfect thunder of applause. When Senator Martin closed Hon. E. W. Hubard being called upon, also spoke in one of his characteristic speeches. Hon J. L. Jeffries, elector at large, was also expected to speak here yesterday, but for some reason he did not come

Ladies in the Audience-Republican Speaking Also,

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
PEARISBURG, VA., September 11.—
Judge Wm. F. Rhea addressed a large and enthusiastic crowd on the court-green here to-day. The court-house was occupied by the Republicans, who were addressed by Hon. Lee Moore, of Christiansburg, and Colonel J. Hampion Hoge. Judge Rhea made a most convincing argument against the policles of the Republican party, and made a fine impression upon the people. Giles county will give a sond majority on November 5th. About fifty ladles came out to hear the Congressman, and manifested much interest. It was singular, but there was not a lady present at the Republican speaking. Their places were taken by the negroes.

Judge Samuel W. Williams and Colonel

J. M. Frnech were called on and made splendid old-fashioned Democratic speeches.

SYNAGOGUE DEDICATED.

The Decision of Mr. Ellyson Give General Satisfaction. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

NEWPORT NEWS, Sept. 11.-The new Jewish Synagogue on Virginia Avenue was dedicated this afternoon with elabo rate and imposing ceremonies, the feature of which was a magnificent and beautifu dedicatory sermon by Rev. Edward N. Calisch, of Richmond.

The decision of State Chairman Ellyson and his two colleagues from the District Committee on the issue between the New-port News City Democratic Committee and the forces that had gathered for a complete reorganization of the party here, gave general satisfaction. While it is considered a great victory for the reorgan'zation crowd, the committeemen and their friends profess to be thoroughly satis-fled with it. The movement will probably result in the election of one of the finest Democratic City Committees in the State.
